P. S. The film also had music composed by Yuvan Shankar Raja. Plot Mahalakshmi (Asin Thottumkal) is a 15-year-old who is a promising athlete. Mahalakshmi is from a poor family and is brought up by her coach, Ramachandran (Radharavi). Mahalakshmi is a promising sportsperson and has a high chance of entering the state championship. She trains in the mornings, takes gymnasium in the afternoons and prepares for exams in the evenings. Mahalakshmi makes a good score in the school entrance exam and was not disappointed when she got admission in one of the best schools in the city, St. Joseph's School. Before she starts at the school, Ramachandran asks her to be his representative at the try-out for school sports events. Mahalakshmi is very happy and she hopes that she will get admission into the school sports team. She meets the sportsman coach, Mr. Jagat Singh (Radharavi), who scolds her for being lazy. Mahalakshmi starts attending school along with other students. She tries to fit in. Mahalakshmi, along with her friends, wins most of the events in school and gets into the school sports team. One day, as a punishment for not paying attention to her studies, Mahalakshmi is forced to stay outside the school gate for a couple of hours. Mahalakshmi takes the opportunity to sneak into the sports grounds and meets some of the students there. Mahalakshmi realizes that there is a special coach (P. S.) for the school sports. Mahalakshmi meets him and promises that she will win the sports event. Mahalakshmi enters in the sports event along with her friends. She makes a winning start and decides to win the whole championship. Mr. Jagat Singh coaches her and she takes on the challenge. While she is playing the game, she receives a message informing her that she has won the championship, along with the title "Miss St. Joseph's School" awarded to her. However, her winning streak is broken by a team composed of all the students in the school. Mahalakshmi loses everything, and is forced to return to school. She feels that the coach has cheated her, and thus refuses to attend the school activities. Ramach 82157476af
